

RethinkWaste

South Bayside Waste Management Authority

OPERATION OF THE SHOREWAY RECYCLING & DISPOSAL CENTER

MAY 22, 2008

Evan Boyd, General Manager, AWS of San Mateo County

Chris Melocik, Senior Vice President, AWS Operations Effectiveness

Today's Discussion

- Who is Allied Waste
- Shared Goals and Common Values
- Experience and Performance
- The Right Facilities
- Capability and Support
- Allied Waste Partnership

An Ordinary Day

Who is Allied Waste

➤ Allied Waste:

- Current waste service provider serving 93,000 San Mateo County residents, and 9,500 commercial businesses...
- The 2nd largest recycling services company in the U.S...
- Provides recycling and transfer services to more than 10 million customers nation wide...
- Collects and processes 7.5 million tons of recyclable materials annually through our network of 53 recycling and 164 transfer facilities...
- Investing for the future...AW has invested $75 Million in transfer and recycling infrastructure in the past 3 years.

Shared Goals and Common Values

- Leadership
- Environmental stewardship
- Professional and reliable service
- Cost effectiveness
- Commitment to always do the right thing

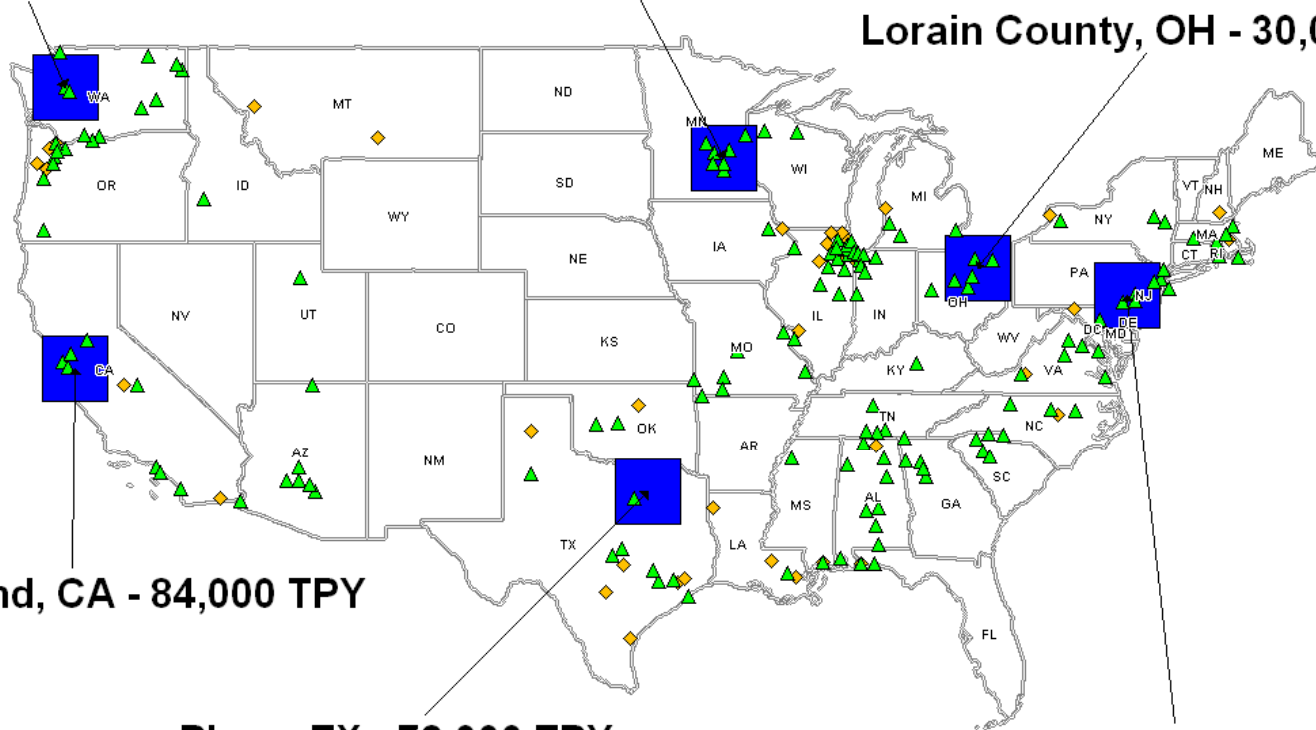

Experience and Performance

Seattle, WA - 192,000 TPY

Minneapolis, MN - 120,000 TPY

Lorain County, OH - 30,000 TPY

Newby Island, CA - 84,000 TPY

Plano, TX - 72,000 TPY

King of Prussia, PA - 84,000 TPY

Allied Sites

- ▲ Transfer Stations
- ◆ MRF's
- Tons Per Year

The Right Facilities

Transfer (434,000 TPY)

- Layout / traffic flow
- Scalehouse / pit design
- Scoreboards, lighting, misters, odor control
- Equipment / facility washdown

MRF (84,000 TPY)

- Layout / material flow
- Metering bins / belt scales
- OCC & news screens
- Optical fiber sorter
- Glass clean-up system
- Optical container sorters
- Baling equipment

The Best Capability and Support

- Experience managing dual-stream to single-stream transitions
- Proven operating systems and processes
- Management systems
- Functional experts
- Continuous introduction of new thinking
- Commitment

Allied Waste Partnership

- Allied Waste is your best Partner:
 - We share your goals and values
 - Best operating solution
 - Vast experience in TS and MRF Operations
 - Ethical, reputable, and stable organization
 - Lowest risk, most cost effective solution

Power of One

